North Marin Community Services

Our whole person/family care framework ensures individuals and families have access to comprehensive, trauma-informed support designed to foster resilience, strengthen relationships, and build community well-being. Through our pathways to programs approach, participants are assessed for all available programs and services, no matter which door they enter through.

In 2025-26, a team of 415 people (70 staff and 345 volunteers) delivered comprehensive services and outreach to 9,305 under-resourced youth, adults, and families. Our programs address critical disparities in health, economic stability, and opportunity by providing integrated support across multiple areas of need.

To meet community members where they are, NMCS delivers services through our two Novato Centers (680 Wilson Avenue and 1907 Novato Boulevard), local school campuses including Novato Unified, Shoreline Unified, and Lagunitas School Districts, the Novato Teen Clinic in partnership with Marin Community Clinics, and through community-based outreach and partnerships throughout Marin County.
